100% like living in Witherley Parish

Q5 What do you like about living in Witherley Parish?

- The park. (Ratcliffe Culey) Local neighbourhood everyone knows most people. Community events.
- it is kept quite clean overall
- I like the pub I like the park also I like the river in the summer like living in Ratcliffe Culey
- Countryside quiet/peaceful River
- Friendly community, a good village school and it was good when I was younger to have a park to play in.
- It's quite quiet. I really like the park. The neighbours and it's quite a close community.
- Ratcliffe Culey playing field It is a small, pretty village The people are friendly
- The people the events the countryside

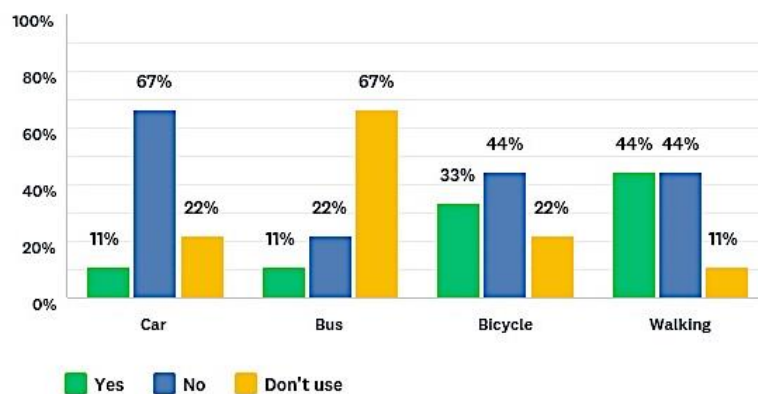

Q6 What do you dislike about living in Witherley Parish?

- More variety of equipment at Ratcliffe Culey
- Park. Lack of cycle paths / routes.
- There is no safe way to get to other villages around your village
- Lack of public transport Very little to do; lacking leisure equipment at park
- Not enough facilities (like a little shop) and no path to walk to my school bus, which is unsafe at any time but especially in the dark mornings.
- The park could do with a few more play items like a rope swing. The pavements need to be bigger. The cars go too fast down the road.
- The cars speed down the road The library's bus comes at inconvenient times (when we are at school) and it doesn't come very regularly
- How fast the cars travel

- Cycle routes between the parish villages and Atherstone.
- Safer pavement between villages
- More paths
- More regular buses, especially at weekend. Cycle paths to Atherstone & Market Bosworth
- Have better transport links, as it is harder to get to different areas and the lack of pavements for walking on when going to the bus or to the centre of the village.
- A zebra crossing near the pub.
- Bigger pavements

Q10 Would you like to remain living in Witherley Parish when you are older?

Q11 Why is this?

- I have had a good upbringing so I would like my future family to have one
- Want to move around to new places
- Because it's nice and quiet
- Because it's near lots of convenient places but not too close you can see them. Because all the neighbours are very friendly.
- Because it is a small, pretty village and near a small town with useful shops.

Q15 Are there enough facilities and activities for young people in Witherley Parish?

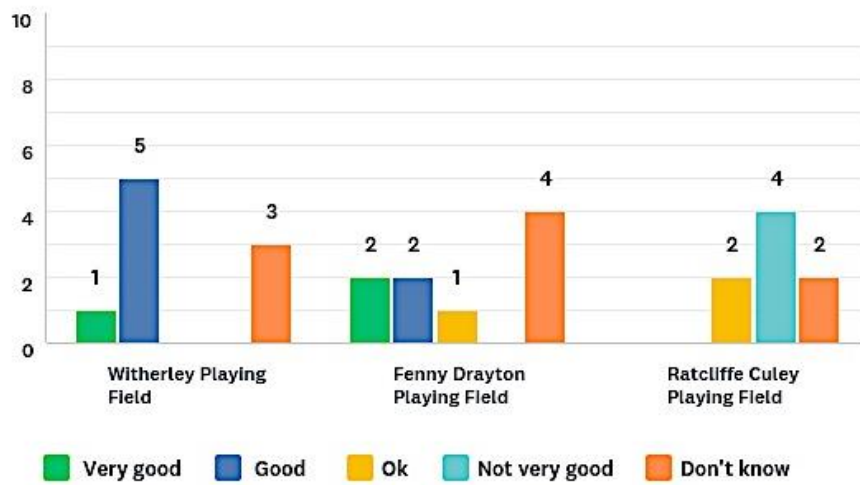

Q16 What extra facilities and activities would you use? Please list as many as possible

- Sports centre in one of the villages.
- Better play areas in every village for children to spend their time after school or on the weekends instead of driving to another village
- A better park
- Pump track. Better play equipment at Ratcliffe Cycle paths
- Not really sure just do not think that for the younger people there are many activities going on for example little clubs in the holidays for when people are at work
- Playground equipment in Ratcliffe because there are only the swings.
- More equipment in the Park e.g. a zip wire, climbing frame, seesaw
- The park more play equipment

Q20 Are there any things that could be done to improve Witherley Parish in the future?

- More spaces for young children and especially 13-18 year olds
- More interactive spaces for villages to come together
- Better leisure facilities - move more quickly to improve Ratcliffe park play facilities
- I just think that adding a couple more facilities such as a small village shop would make a good difference and definitely ensure all the footpaths are in correct places due to the fact that I have to walk along an unsafe road most days to get to my school bus
- Playground equipment in Ratcliffe. I would like rope swings, a zip wire going across the ditch, roundabout, tunnel trails underneath an artificial hill and a basket swing
